CHAPTER III
Procedure for Meetings of the Board and its Committees

6. Meeting of the Board:- The Board shall hold a meeting at least once in every quarter on such dates and at such places as the Chairman may think fit, and the interval between any two ordinary meetings shall not in any case, be longer than four months.

Provided the Board may, with the permission of the Central Government, hold no meeting in any particular quarter.

7. Power to call Meetings:- (1) The Chairman may at any time, call a meeting of the Board or of any of the Committees, and shall do so if a requisition for a meeting is presented to him in writing by at least eight members in the case of a meeting of the Board and at least four members in the case of a meeting of a Committee.

(2) The Chairman may require any officer or officers of the Board to attend any meeting of the Board but such officers shall not have the power to vote.

(3) At least fourteen clear days before any meeting of the Board and at least ten clear days before a meeting of any of the committees, notice of the date, time and place of the intended meeting signed by the Secretary shall be sent to the Central Government and left at or posted to the address of every member of the Board or, as the case may be, of the Committee.

Provided that in case of urgency, a special meeting of the Board or of any or more of the Committees may be summoned at any time by the Chairman, who shall inform in advance, the Central Government and the members, of the subject-matter for discussions and the reasons for which he considers the summoning of such urgent meeting. No ordinary business shall be transacted at such special meetings.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations, the Central Government may also, at any time, call a meeting of the Board.

8. Quorum:- (1) No business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Board unless there are present at least one fourth of the numbers constituting the respective committee.

(2) If at any time the number of members present in a meeting of any of the committees is less than the required quorum, the person presiding shall adjourn the meeting to a date not later than seven days from the date of the meeting informing the members of the Committee of the date, time and place of the adjourned meeting, and if the number of members present at such adjourned meeting is less than the required quorum, the members so present shall be the quorum.

9. Absence from meetings of a Committee:- Any member other than an ex-officio member, of a Committee absenting himself from three consecutive meetings without the leave of the Chairman shall cease to be a member of that Committee.

10. Filling up of casual vacancies:- (1) Any casual vacancy in the membership of a Committee shall be filled up by the remaining members of the Committee from amongst the members of the Board.

(2) A person appointed in a casual vacancy shall hold office so long as the member whose place he fills would have been entitled to hold office, if the vacancy had not occurred.

11. Presiding over Meetings: At every meeting of the Board or any of the Committees at which he is present, the Chairman shall preside and, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman shall preside. If both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman are absent, the members present at the meeting shall elect one from among themselves to preside at the meeting.

12. Agenda:

   (1) the Chairman shall cause to be prepared and circulated to the Central Government and among the members of the Board or any of the Committees at least ten days before any ordinary meeting of the Board or of such Committee, a list of business to be transacted at that meeting.

13. Business by circulation:

   (1) Any business which is to be transacted by the Board or a Committee may, if the Chairman of the Board or of the Committees so directs, be referred to members (other than members who are absent from India) by circulation of papers.

   (2) Any proposal or resolution circulated under sub-regulation (1) and approved by the majority of members who have recorded their views in writing shall be as effectual and binding as if such proposal or resolution were decided by the majority of the members at a meeting.

   Provided that at least eight members of the Board or four members of the Committee as the case may be have recorded their views on the proposal or resolution.

   Provided further that when a proposal or resolution is referred to the members by circulation, any five members, of the Board or three members of any of the Committees, as the case may be, may require that the proposal or resolution be referred to members at a meeting, and thereupon such reference shall be made to members at a meeting of the Board or of the Committee, as the case may be.

   (3) When any business is referred to members of the Board or of the Committee, as the case may be, by circulation, a period of not less than fifteen clear days shall be allowed for receipt of replies from members. Such period shall be reckoned from the date on which the notice of business is issued.

   (4) If a proposal or resolution is circulated, the result of the circulation shall be communicated to all the members of the Board or of the Committee concerned.

   (5) All decisions on questions arrived at by circulation of papers shall be placed at the next meeting of the Board or of the Committee, as the case may be for record.

14. Record of Business:

   (1) A record shall be maintained by the Secretary of all items of business transacted by the Board or by the Committees and copies of such record shall be forwarded to the Central Government.

   (2) The record of business transacted at every meeting of any of the Board and of the Committees shall be signed by the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman or the member presiding at such meetings.

   (3) When a business is transacted by circulation of papers, a record of business so transacted shall be signed by the Chairman.
15. [Voting:- (1) Every question brought before any meeting of the Board or its Committees shall be decided by a majority of Members present and voting at the meeting before which the matter is brought. The Chairman or the Vice-Chairman or the member presiding over the meeting of the Board or of the Committee, as the case may be, shall exercise his right of vote only when there is an equality of votes].

(2) In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman or the member presiding over the meeting of the Board or of the Committee, as the case may be, shall have a casting vote.

16. Revision:- (1) The Central Government may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, review any decision of the Board or its Committee and pass such order in the matter as it thinks fit.

(2) A copy of every order passed under sub-regulation (1) shall be sent to the Board by the Central Government.

(3) On receipt of a copy of the order as aforesaid, the Board may make a representation to the Central Government against the said order and the Central Government may after considering the representation, either cancel, modify or confirm the order passed by it under sub-regulation (1), or take such other action in respect of the matter as may, in the opinion of the Central Government, be just or expedient, having regard to all the circumstances of the case.
